

ECONOMY

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 4
DATE OF BROADCAST: June 16, 2008
DESCRIPTION: State lawmakers will be in Carson City next week to attend a special session concerning Nevada's financial crisis. One option to be discussed is the postponement of cost of living increases for state employees, including teachers.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 4
DATE OF BROADCAST: June 16, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Drivers are not getting any relief at the pump. According to Triple A, Southern Nevadans are paying an average of $4.25 a gallon for gas.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: June 18, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Gas prices are high and going higher, but one station here in the valley plans on keeping their price at $3.99 a gallon. The station is at Vegas and Decatur.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: June 18, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Tonight Assembly Democrats will meet behind closed doors to tackle the worst money crunch our state has ever seen. The budget deficit is approaching 1 million dollars, and is estimated to go even higher.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 4
DATE OF BROADCAST: June 19, 2008
DESCRIPTION: The IRS is trying to get the word out to more than forty four thousand Nevadans who still haven't claimed their share of the stimulus package.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 4
DATE OF BROADCAST: June 20, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Governor Gibbon has announced plans to delay the special session until next week to give legislative and executive staff more time to prepare. Lawmakers are now scrambling to change their travel plans.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: June 20, 2008
DESCRIPTION: If you're looking for a job right now, you're not the only one. Nevada's unemployment rate surged a half percent in the month of May. Workers on the strip are being hit hard by hotels and casinos that are trimming their budgets.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: June 20, 2008
DESCRIPTION: The struggling economy has many Americans looking for ways to save money. One place they're turning to -- a membership club. At Costco for instance, new customers are signing up faster than ever.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3

TYPE: News 3 @ 6

DATE OF BROADCAST: June 21, 2008

DESCRIPTION: The owners of Cosmopolitan magazine are filing suit against a local resort with the same name. Hearst Communications claims the financially troubled Cosmopolitan development has tried to confuse the public into thinking the project is related to the publishing company. This comes as Deutsche Bank is foreclosing on the 3.9 billion dollar project.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3

TYPE: News 3 @ 11

DATE OF BROADCAST: June 22, 2008

DESCRIPTION: With the struggling economy valley residents are turning to other means to make ends meet – one of which is garage sales. People are selling what they really don't need to make extra cash. And they're not only putting ads in the paper, but on internet sites like Craigslist to attract a wider audience.
